IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

SUMMONS FOR JUDGMENT NO. 827 OF 2004
IN
Summary SUIT NO. 1677 OF 2004

Sanjay R. Nirmal . .... Plaintiff vs.
M/s. Hi Tech Blood Bank & ors. ... Defendants

Anil Mishra for Plaintiff
H. S. S. Muarthy for defendant no.1 & 2.
Tejas Vora i/b. Dahibawkar & Co., for defendant no3..

CORAM: S. U. KAMDAR J.

Date: 28/9/2005

P.C.

By consent of the parties the following order is passed:

The Court Receiver, High Court, Bombay is directed to pay to the Plaintiff a sum of Rs.2,75,000/- within a period of 4 weeks from today. The said payment will be made from the account of the defendant no.1 firm out of the royalty amount, lying deposited with the Court Receiver . Defendant nos. 2 and 3 who are partners of the said firm have no objection to the aforesaid arrangement. In that view of the matter the suit does not survive. Suit is accordingly decreed for Rs.2,75,000 and the Court Receiver is directed to pay the aforesaid amount. On payment of the said amount by the Court Receiver decree to be marked as satisfied. Suit disposed of accordingly.

(S. U. KAMDAR J.)